PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

From the Principal's Desk:
The Forest of Guides
Dear Students, Teachers, and Parents,

Welcome to the second edition of our e-bulletin! Today, I want to share a quick kutty story with you.

Once, a young traveler met three different guides in a magical forest. The first made him dance to learn, the second taught him to sit in deep silence, and the third demanded precise, mapped-out steps.

The traveler initially complained about their different styles. But by the end of his journey, he realized something beautiful: the first guide gave him energy, the second gave him peace, and the third gave him discipline. Had they all been the same, his learning would be incomplete.

Just like the traveler, you encounter many different guides in our school. Every teacher brings a unique methodology and personality to the classroom. One might love vibrant debates, while another prefers quiet structure.To truly receive the gifts each teacher has to offer, we must respect their space. This means adapting to their specific classroom rules, honoring their boundaries, and listening with an open mind.When you respect the individual style of each teacher, you don't just become a better student—you become a wiser traveler.

Let us celebrate the diverse voices that make our school a vibrant place to grow.

Happy reading!
Warm regards,
Sr.Arul
Principal
